CONSTITUTION
DETACHMENT OF COLORADO
SONS OF THE AMERICAN LEGION

PREAMBLE

Proud possessors of a priceless heritage, we, male descendants of veterans of the Great Wars, associate ourselves together as "Sons of The American Legion" for the following purposes:

To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a true spirit of Americanism; to preserve the memories of our former members and the associations of our members and our forefathers in the Great Wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the Community, State and Nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our friendship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness; to adopt in letter and spirit all of the great principles for which The American Legion stands; and to assist in carrying on for God and Country.

ARTICLE I NAME

SECTION 1: The name of this organization shall be the Sons of The American Legion Detachment of Colorado.

ARTICLE II NATURE

SECTION 1: The Sons of The American Legion is a civilian organization. Membership therein does not affect nor increase liability for military or police service.

SECTION 2: The Sons of The American Legion shall be absolutely non-political and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles nor for the promotion of the candidacy of any person or group seeking public office or preferment.

SECTION 3: The Sons of The American Legion Detachment of Colorado shall be absolutely non-sectarian.

SECTION 4: Each member shall perform his full duty as a citizen according to his own conscience and understanding in accord with the law.

ARTICLE III ELIGIBILITY

SECTION 1: All male descendants, adopted sons and stepsons of members of The American Legion and such male descendants of veterans who died in service during World War I, World War II, the Korean War, or the Vietnam War, during the delimiting periods set forth in Article IV, Section 1, of the National Constitution of The American Legion, or who died subsequent to their honorable discharge from such service, shall be eligible for membership in the Sons of The American Legion.

SECTION 2: There shall be no form or class of membership except an active membership.

SECTION 3: No person may be a member, at any one time, of more than one Squadron.

SECTION 4: No person who has been expelled by a Squadron shall be admitted to membership in another Squadron without the consent of the expelling Squadron. When such consent has been asked for and denied by such Squadron, he may then appeal to the Detachment Executive Committee for permission to be admitted to membership in another Squadron and shall be ineligible for membership until such permission is granted.

ARTICLE IV ORGANIZATION

SECTION 1: The local unit of the Sons of The American Legion Detachment of Colorado is the Squadron and One (1) Post of The American Legion may sponsor no more the one (1) Squadron.

SECTION 2: The Sons of The American Legion Detachment of Colorado shall establish intermediate bodies (District, County, Area, etc.) as may be necessary to fulfill the functions of the Sons of The American Legion.

SECTION 3: The minimum membership for the formation of a Squadron shall be ten (10) members.

SECTION 4: Those who desire to form a Squadron shall submit to the Detachment Executive Committee an application for a charter, properly executed by the proposed charter members. Upon receipt of such application, the Detachment Executive Committee will forward the application to The American Legion Department of Colorado Headquarters for approval and forwarding to The American Legion National Headquarters.

SECTION 5: The Detachment of Colorado will have jurisdiction over the Squadrons within the Detachments' geographical area, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by The American Legion Department of Colorado.

SECTION 6: The Sons of The American Legion Squadron shall be organized under the jurisdiction and sponsorship of a local Post of The American Legion and shall bear the name of such sponsoring Post.

ARTICLE V DETACHMENT OFFICERS

SECTION 1: The Detachment Convention shall elect a Detachment Commander, one Detachment Senior Vice Commander, two or more Junior Vice Commanders who will serve without seniority and at the discretion of the Detachment Commander shall be given a district north, south, east or west, a Detachment Chaplain, and a Detachment Sergeant-at Arms. The Detachment Convention shall also elect a National Executive Committeeman and an Alternate National Executive Committeeman.

SECTION 2: Such Officers shall serve until the adjournment of the succeeding Detachment Convention following their election or until their successors are chosen. Vacancies in these offices occurring between Detachment Conventions, shall be filled by election by the Detachment Executive Committee. The term of the National Executive Committeeman and the Alternate National Executive Committeeman will expire immediately after the subsequent National Convention. The newly elected National Executive Committeeman and Alternate National Executive Committee shall assume office at the post-National Convention National Executive Committee meeting.

SECTION 3: No member may hold both a National Office and an elected Detachment Office at the same time.

SECTION 4: Any Detachment Sons of The American Legion elected officer (Article V, Section 1) may be removed from his office for cause. A vote to remove from office can only occur during a regular meeting of the Detachment Executive Committee. The proposed removal of the elected officer shall be included in the meeting's written notification. Any officer who is removed has the right of appeal to the Department Executive Committee of The American Legion in the manner prescribed by the said Committee. The decision of the Department shall be final.

SECTION 5: The Detachment Commander will appoint, with the approval of the Detachment Executive Committee, a Detachment Adjutant, a Detachment Finance Officer, a Detachment Judge Advocate, a Detachment Historian, and any Assistant Adjutants and Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms or other positions as may be necessary. Such officers and other positions will hold office at the pleasure of the Commander or Detachment Executive Committee. Any member so removed has the right of appeal at a regular Detachment Executive Committee meeting. The decision of the Detachment Executive Committee shall be final.

SECTION 6: The Sons of The American Legion shall recognize an individual or individuals designated by the Department Commander of the American Legion as Detachment Advisor or Advisors to the Sons of The American Legion and he/she or they shall be ex-officio members of all committees or commissions of the Detachment organization of the Sons of the American Legion.

SECTION 7: In fulfilling their duties and responsibilities, the Detachment Officers shall be responsible to the Department Executive Committee of The American Legion or to a subordinate body by its designate.

ARTICLE VI LEGISLATIVE BODY

SECTION 1: The Legislative Body of the Sons of The American Legion Detachment of Colorado shall be a Detachment Convention, to be held annually in conjunction with The American Legion Department of Colorado Convention. All acts of the Detachment Convention are subject to ratification by the Detachment Executive Committee and the Department Executive Committee of The American Legion.

SECTION 2: A Detachment Mid-Year Conference shall be held in conjunction with the Department Mid-Year Conference of The American Legion for the purpose of legislative action.

SECTION 3: The Detachment Commander shall issue a call to the Detachment Convention or Conference not less than thirty (30) days prior to such meeting. Such calls shall go out to each Squadron of the Detachment, all elected Detachment Officers, all Past Detachment Commanders and Detachment Advisors.

SECTION 4:

- A. At the Detachment Convention or Mid-Year Conference each Squadron shall be entitled to ten (10) delegates plus one (1) delegate for each ten (10) members, or major fraction thereof, after the initial Squadron formation of ten (10) members. (Example: A Squadron with 37 members would be entitled to 13 delegates.) However under no circumstance shall a Squadron be entitled to a larger number of delegates than the number of members reported (Example: A Squadron with six members would be entitled to only 6 delegates).

- B. Squadron Delegate strength will be determined by the Detachment membership report as published by the Detachment Adjutant as of May 20th or the first date following May 20th of the Convention year. This membership report will be included in the “Call to Convention” to assist the various Squadrons in determining their authorized delegate strength.

SECTION 5: Each duly registered delegate shall be entitled to one (1) vote. The vote of any registered delegate absent and not represented by an alternate shall be cast by the majority of the registered delegates present from his Squadron. Alternates for registered delegates shall have all the privileges of registered delegates except that of voting. A registered delegate is one who has received his credentials and has paid such registration fee as may be required.

SECTION 6: All elected Detachment Officers shall be delegates-at-large to the Detachment Convention and Mid-Year Conference with their vote to be exercised by them with their respective Squadrons, provided they are duly registered.

SECTION 7: All Past Detachment Commanders, while in good standing in their respective Squadron in this Detachment, shall be delegates-at-large for life to all Detachment Conventions with their vote to be exercised by them with their respective Squadrons, provided they are duly registered.

SECTION 8: At least three Squadrons must be present and duly registered to make a quorum

SECTION 9:

ARTICLE VII DETACHMENT EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

SECTION 1: Between Detachment Conventions and Mid-Year Conferences, the administrative power of the Detachment shall be vested in the Detachment Executive Committee. The Detachment Executive Committee shall be composed of the Detachment Commander, Detachment Senior Vice Commander, all Detachment Junior Vice Commanders, Detachment Chaplain, Detachment Historian, Detachment Sergeant-at-Arms, National Executive Committeeman, Alternate National Executive Committeeman, the immediate Past Detachment Commander, two (2) past Detachment Commanders elected by the legislative body at the Detachment Convention, and one representative from each Squadron.

SECTION 2: A Squadron may appoint or elect a member, in good standing, to serve on the Detachment Executive Committee, for a term of one year.

SECTION 3: An elected Detachment Officer cannot also be the representative from his respective Squadron. No member can cast more than one vote.

SECTION 4: At least three Squadrons must be represented to establish a quorum with at least one (1) elected Detachment Officer present to chair the meeting. Representation includes elected Detachment Officers.

ARTICLE VIII FINANCES

SECTION 1: The Sons of The American Legion Detachment of Colorado revenue shall be derived from the annual membership dues which will be mandated by the Detachment Convention and deposited in an account for the purpose of the operation of the Detachment.

SECTION 2: All other money will be deposited in special accounts for use in various community projects or Detachment projects.

SECTION 3: All checks must have two signatures. There must be at least three authorized signatures on file for all accounts. The Detachment Finance Officer, the Detachment Adjutant and the Department Finance Officer or Department S.A.L. Advisor shall be authorized to sign checks. All members or advisors authorized to sign checks must be bondable. The VA&R Committee shall be authorized to direct expenditures from the VA&R account.

SECTION 4: No expenditures are to be made from any funds that are not authorized by the proposed budget for the year or mandated by the Detachment Convention/Mid-Year Conference or the Detachment Executive Committee. Emergency expenditures that are not covered by the budget must be authorized by the Detachment Finance Committee.

SECTION 5: The amount of such annual Detachment dues shall be $7.00 per member and shall be payable October 20 of each year for the succeeding year. These dues are to be transmitted to Detachment Headquarters along with the National dues.

ARTICLE IX AMENDMENTS

SECTION 1: This Constitution may be amended at any Detachment Convention or Mid-Year Conference by a vote of two thirds (2/3) of the total authorized representation represented in person or by proxy provided that the proposed amendment shall have been submitted by resolution. All Resolutions, originating from a Squadron, the Detachment Executive Committee or a standing committee shall be submitted in proper form at least forty-five (45) days prior to the Convention or Mid-Year Conference to the Detachment Adjutant. The Detachment Adjutant shall send notice of proposed changes to the Constitution to the Squadrons at least thirty (30) days prior to the convening of the next Detachment Convention or Mid-Year Conference. The Constitution can also be amended by unanimous vote in favor of a properly introduced resolution to the above mentioned meetings.

ARTICLE X
SAFETY CLAUSE

SECTION 1: If any section herein shall be determined, by proper authority, to be unconstitutional, such determination shall not be deemed to effect the validity of the remainder of the affected section of this Constitution.

ARTICLE XI
REPEAL AND SAVING CLAUSE

SECTION 1: This Constitution was revised and adopted at the Detachment Convention held in Grand Junction, Colorado on June 29 - July 1, 2012. All previous constitutions are now therefore declared null and void. Signed by Detachment Adjutant – Mark Kilstrom and attested to by Detachment Judge Advocate Doug Wooddell.

His individual action is full and unhampered, being that of an American citizen, but he shall not present such action to be that of any Sons of the American Legion organization.

SECTION 2: All matters of state, national, or international scope that appeal to the Sons of The American Legion, Squadron or Detachment, may be treated, discussed and acted upon by any unit of the Sons of the American Legion, provided, however, that such action shall be submitted for approval through the prescribed Sons of The American Legion and The American Legion channels to the body having jurisdiction thereof.

SECTION 3: A Squadron may discuss the action taken by the Detachment or National Organization and adopt a resolution protesting against any action taken by the Detachment of National Organization and request through channels that such action be reversed.

SECTION 4: The principles set forth in this Article shall be observed by all Sons of The American Legion, by all Squadrons, and by this Detachment. A violation of any of the provisions of this Article by a member of the Sons of The American Legion or by a Squadron shall be sufficient cause for investigation and disciplinary action by the Detachment Executive Committee and in the case of a Sons of The American Legion member by the Squadron of which he is a member.

ARTICLE VIII REGULATIONS

SECTION 1: The Department Executive Committee of The American Legion is authorized to make and publish regulations for the organization, management and conduct of the Detachment and of Squadrons and all other organizations of the Detachment. Such regulations shall be consistent with the Department Constitution and By-Laws and shall be compiled with by all concerned.

ARTICLE IX RULES

SECTION 1: The procedure of the Detachment Convention, Mid-Year Conference and related meetings shall be governed by the Uniform Code of Procedure for the Organization of Detachment Conventions of the Sons of the American Legion, Detachment of Colorado and Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised (most Current Edition).

SECTION 2: The Uniform Code of Procedure for the Organization of Detachment Conventions of the Sons of the American Legion, Detachment of Colorado shall be maintained and revised by the Detachment Executive Committee with any revisions made available to the Squadrons at the first possible opportunity.

ARTICLE X
AMENDMENTS

SECTION 1: All amendments must conform to the requirements of Article IX of the Constitution, except for the provision requiring "a vote of two thirds" shall be changed to a majority vote of the total authorized representation.

ARTICLE XI
SAFETY CLAUSE

SECTION 1: If any section herein shall be determined, by proper authority, to be unconstitutional, such determination shall not be deemed to effect the validity of the remaining unaffected sections of these By-Laws.

ARTICLE XII
REPEAL AND SAVINGS CLAUSE

SECTION 1: These By-Laws were revised and adopted at the Detachment Convention held in Colorado Springs, Colorado on June 24-25, 2011. All previous By-Laws are now therefore declared null and void. Signed by Past Detachment Adjutant - Rick Baldessari.
